

The Peter C. Alderman Foundation and the NYU - Bellevue Program for Survivors of Torture will hold a one-day conference on Saturday, November 12, 2011. Entitled RECOVERY FROM TRAUMA: LESSONS FROM GROUND ZERO AND BEYOND, it will be held at the NYU-Langone Medical Center – Farkas Auditorium (550 First Ave. @33 rd St.) and is open, free of charge, to all mental health professionals and others interested in or working to alleviate trauma.

Panels will address the experience of healers, both internationally and in the United States , the experience of the Media, and the way forward -advocacy, planning and prevention. Panelists will include some of the world's leading experts on mental trauma, asylum, international human rights, child protection and returning veterans,

For registration and further information, please visit our website: www.petercaldermanfoundation.org

Via: Suzanne B. Phillips Psy.D, NYS LICENSED PSYCHOLOGIST,PSY.D., DIPLOMATE AMERICAN BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY,ABPP Visit Suzanne B. Phillips Psy.D.,ABPP's Facebook page